EuroMeSCo organises the Autumn edition of the Workout 2021

These courses target think tankers and researchers who are eager to improve their skills in a particular area

The EuroMeSCo Workout courses target think tankers and researchers who are eager to improve their skills in a particular area.

In this fall edition, the three following EuroMeSCo Workout courses will be held online:

1. Infographics and data visualization for beginners. Eli Vivas & Laura Navarro, StoryData.
2. Foresight Techniques for Research and Think Tank Work. Florence Gaub, European Union Institute for Security Studies (EUISS).
3. Policy Recommendations: The Key to Influence. Georgeta Auktor, German Development Institute (DIE) & Daniela Marzavan, Team Marzavan

The IEMed will issue a Certificate of Completion upon the satisfactory completion of each course.

This is part of the project EuroMeSCo: Connecting the Dots, co-funded by the European Union and the European Institute of the Mediterranean (IEMed).

EuroMeSCo participates in the new edition of the Global Go To Think Tank Index Survey

Like every year, the University of Pennsylvania has launched its Global Go To Think Tank Index Survey within the framework of its Think Tank and Civil Society Program (TTCP). This Index evaluates the quality of think tank and research institutes all over the world throughout all major areas of public policy research.

Since 2013, EuroMeSCo is within the top ten networks of think tanks in the world, ranking in the seventh position in the 2020 Global Go To Think Tank Index Report. (Question 54)

In this regard, the EuroMeSCo team is working to further improve the visibility of our network in this and other fora, highlighting the efforts of our diverse and multi-disciplinary community of over 600 experts from 104 different institutes all over the Mediterranean. We'll always strive for excellence!

The Euromed Young Researchers Forum report is out!

On the 25th and 26th October, nearly 50 young researchers from all along the Mediterranean successfully gathered in Barcelona in order to present their research work, exchange knowledge with other experts and policymakers, as well as to benefit from capacity building trainings.

Read now the report on how these fruitful and intense sessions were held and all the practical information the speakers provided to the young researchers. During the Policy Talks sessions we were honoured to count on the participation of Mrs. Awatif Hayar, Moroccan Minister of Solidarity Social Development, Equality & Family; Ilias Iakovidis, Adviser for Digital Aspects of Green Transformation, Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology, European Commission; Marc Sanchez Ruiz, Deputy Head of Cabinet at the Union for the Mediterranean; Michael Donaldson, Commissioner for Digital Innovation, e-Government and Good Governance of the Barcelona City Council; and Mohammed Khalil, Professor and Head of Digital Transformation at the University of Université Hassan II de Casablanca. Watch now the video of the event!

On the other hand, and on the occasion of the Mediterranean Day, next November 28, we asked a few young researchers during the IV Euromed Young Researchers Forum what they think the Mediterranean region would look like. Watch now the video and learn what they said.
