Kuwaiti Ambassador Sheikh Ali Khalid Al-Jaber Al-Sabah with President of Euro-Mediterranean Foundation Michele Capasso

By Mahdi Nimr

ROME, June 15 (KUNA) -- Kuwaiti Ambassador here Sheikh Ali Khalid Al-Jaber Al-Sabah has become acquainted with the leading role played by the Euro-Mediterranean Foundation for the Dialogue Between Cultures for a quarter of a century.

This came during a meeting between the Kuwaiti diplomat with President of the Foundation, Michele Capasso, who received him at the Foundation's headquarters in Naples.

Sheikh Ali was briefed about the Foundation's various activities in the Mediterranean region and the Arabian Gulf.

The two men exchanged views on the current global issues and challenges, especially in the Arab region and the Mediterranean including the concerted efforts of Italy, which is preparing to take over the presidency of the European Union, and Kuwait, which chairs the Arab League and the GCC, in the promotion of dialogue and understanding to resolve the crises.

In this regard, Sheikh Ali and Capasso also noted the distinct and pioneering role played by His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah in various forums throughout the four historic decades and his wise leadership in the service of peace and international cooperation and development, as well as his perseverance and tireless efforts in enhancing security and regional stability.

The two sides also addressed His Highness the Amir's efforts and sponsorship of initiatives aimed at addressing the human concerns and major global challenges in the face of poverty, hunger, disaster and successive crises.

Capasso for his part said that Kuwait has always been at the center of attention of his Foundation which called since its inception for supporting dialogue between cultures as an essential element to ensure peace and prosperity. (end) mn.tg
