Erbil: President of Kurdistan Region awarded the Peace Prize to the Mediterranean Foundation

17/03/2012 17:28

Erbil, March 17 / March (Rn) - The ceremony of the Conference of the definition of crimes against the Kurdish people of genocide the world which was inaugurated on Saturday, in Arbil, granting the President of the Kurdistan region, Massoud Barzani, the Peace Prize of the Foundation of the Mediterranean.

Both the Secretary General of the Foundation the Mediterranean Sea and the Albanian Defense Minister Arben Imami the Peace Prize of the Foundation to President Barzani as the representative of the people of Kurdistan.

The head of the Kurdistan region, Massoud Barzani, in a speech after receiving the award "on behalf of relatives of the victims of Halabja chemical attacks and on behalf of widows and mothers of martyrs, I have the honor to receive this award on their behalf and on behalf of the general people of Kurdistan."

He said, "The Kurdistan region now has friends all over the world and this example of the evaluation of the struggle of peoples and their sacrifices," and pointed out that "the prize is a gift received by all the people of Kurdistan."

Barzani said he "thanks and appreciation to all who participated in the conference definition of crimes against the Kurdish people of genocide the world and to all who stood alongside the people of Kurdistan in crises."

He added by saying that "the people of Kurdistan rose up in the spring of 1991 and there are wounded Alashalh chemicals are still in hospitals and displaced to Aazaloo outside the home, and we were able to defeat the two divisions of the army of the former regime and could have been retaliation, but we the people do not recognize the use of violence to take revenge on the people know amnesty when be able to respect the humanity by the people, even with our enemies. "

Barzani and concluded his speech by saying "While we will not forget what we were his tragedies and injustice, but we do not seek revenge for the use of violence, and people in the world like the rest of the people of Kurdistan to him his rights and he can get them to peace."

The Mediterranean Foundation is a global institution headquartered in Italy and is active in the quest for peace and protection of human rights.
