Napoli, 9 novembre 2017

Naples (Italy). Thursday 9 November 2017, Mother Yvonne Reungoat, Superior General of the Institute of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians - Salesians of Don Bosco, who is visiting Our Lady of Good Counsel Province (IMR), will be at the Peace Museum - MAMT for the inauguration of "Saint Mary Domenica Mazzarello Room" and the collocation of the Saint's relic in "Don Bosco Chapel", in the presence of the Provincial, Sr. Maria Rosaria Tagliaferri and of the FMA of the Southern Province of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

On this occasion, Mother Yvonne Reungoat will receive the "Mediterranean Peace Award", which is considered among the most significant at the international level.

We read in the motivations communicated by the President of the Mediterranean Foundation, Professor Michele Capasso:

“For activity in favor of peace and concord among the Peoples of the world, carried out under the guidance of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians (FMA), especially where war and poverty rage: precisely in these places, FMAs often constitute the sole point of reference for men and women belonging to different faiths.

Mother Yvonne Reungoat, with her missionary experience in the neediest places of the African continent, is aware of the joy and simplicity in helping others to feel they are ‘Family’: a place in which, thanks to Don Bosco’s charism and the example of Mother Mazzarello, it is possible to daily give space to that ‘Creativity of Love’ that constitutes the instrument with which the Salesian charism is implemented with humility and collaboration, and with hope in the young, producers of our future”.

The award of the “Mediterranean Foundation” has been bestowed in previous editions to important personalities such as King Juan Carlos di Spain, King Hussein of Jordan, Presidents Anibal Cavaco Silva and Abu Mazen, Leah Rabin, the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem Fouad Twal, winners of the Nobel Prize Shirine Ebadi and Naguib Mahfouz, Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini, Cardinal Roger Etchegaray, and others.

Mother will continue her visit encountering the Educating Communities of the Southern Italian Regions from November 10 to 14, 2017.
