SPECIAL EDITION
BAN KI-MOON

Secretary General of the United Nations (SOUTH KOREA)

The UN Secretary General, Ban Ki-moon has used his best endeavours to further the ideals of peace and international cooperation enshrined by the United Nations Charter – through actions to promote fundamental human rights, equality of men and women, international peace-keeping and security, and the economic and social advancement of all peoples. In particular, he has been outspoken in his actions to resolve the conflict in Syria, and more generally across those countries in which the Arab Spring has produced difficult transitions and bloodshed.

Historical truth, old and new difficulties preventing the peace process serve to strengthen his determination to consider peace as the imperative basis for the future of the Mediterranean and the world.

(USA)*

For his extraordinary efforts to strengthen international diplomacy and cooperation between peoples and for his continued support for the vision of a world free of weapons of mass destruction. Most notably, he called for a new start to relations between the Muslim world and the West, based on common interests and mutual understanding and respect. All along his mandate, President Obama has continued in his firm stand as strong spokesman for human rights and democracy as well as for the work being done to put effective measures in place to combat the Planet's climate change. Today he continues to strongly support the Middle East Peace Process and in the greater Mediterranean area.

of the Corps Coast Guard
(ITALY)*

Admiral Felicio Angrisano, with the sincerity of a seafarer and the kindness of a Naval Officer, is, for His men and women as well as for the whole civil society, a great example of constant commitment for the safeguard of human life aiming at a culture of Peace.

His action is characterized by an extraordinary sense of "General Wellbeing" and by the coherence that enabled him to assign the unusual role of "Diplomacy of Peace" to Harbour Offices and Coastguard.

When his men are the first to rescue and help the surviving immigrants, they represent the True Italy: Italy of solidarity and welcome.

The words of Cardinal Parolin, Secretary of State at the Holy See, can well be applied to Felicio Angrisano:

"We cannot remain indifferent to the dramatic distress of human beings. We have to demonstrate that peace is possible, that it is not utopia. Diplomats haven't they the mission of working to make a happier world?".

PINO DANIELE

*Songwriter
(ITALY)*

The Mediterranean is not only a journey through geography, history, religions, traditions, wars, cultures, destiny...

It is above all art and music that characterize the cradle of our civilization.

Pino Daniele represents the rare example of a person who, by matching cultural and musical contaminations, has been able to identify in the Mediterranean culture that mixture of sound and passion being the fundamental basis of his art.

Starting from Naples Pino Daniele has refashioned music and song through the emotions of conscience, by transferring to the peculiarity of his voice and his guitar those vibrations of soul that make him a unique protagonist of the "Song coming from the Sea".

MEDIA
SIMONE CAMILLI
Reporter
(ITALY)

War. Tangle of wrongs and passions, of infamy and greatness. A tear in which, in the struggle of a force against another, the tragically constructed civilization becomes somehow uncertain and sometimes wavering. And Simone was there at Gaza, a strip of land-prison, without hatred or partisanship, to witness courage and cowardice, examples of compassion or abuses, of generosity and baseness, without prejudice in search of the truth that each fighter distorts. There, to found on that truth a better understanding of both parts, of the suffering of both, to challenge the opposing beliefs and lay the foundations of a new agreement so as to put an end to hostilities and establish a new, possibly fairer, peace. For this understanding, for this better and more human future, he was there: determined, sparing no pains, without escaping risk. Without any support, except for the distant support from the newspapers which had entrusted him with a mission more difficult than fighting, almost always more obscure. There, unarmed among armed people, serene among passions, courageous without boldness, more determined than fighters. There, always ahead where the battle is raging, convinced and determined. Until the sacrifice we gather here: a message of Peace we repeat here in his name.
